An Educated Voter's Guide to Paterson's School Board Elections:

So Very Close to Local Control: Who Can Move Us Forward?

Our community is very clear; we want to have local control of our schools. The current board has moved us close to local control, as we wait for the State to affirm our QSAC ratings for 2011. How the board moves forward depends upon your vote on April 27.

Our Board of Education members must carry out their duties faithfully within the law. Each time they don't, Paterson takes a step backwards. In order to receive local control, our board members must report their finances, participate in training, follow the standards for ethical behavior and adopt policies that improve student achievement.

Much of that work is done behind the scenes in committees. In the committees, board members meet with key staff members. They learn about the policies and challenges in much more detail that we see in televised meetings. Unfortunately, our board members have very uneven records of participation. Please see page 4 for more detail.

Additionally, the School Board members we elect must work collaboratively with our new State Superintendent and the current members of the Board: Christopher Irving, Errol Kerr, Alex Mendez, Pedro Rodriguez, Kenneth Simmons and Willa Mae Taylor .

Candidates for 3 three years term include incumbents: Wendy Guzman and Dr. Jonathan Hodges; as well as newcomers: Arleen Barcenas, Chrystal Cleaves and Ramon Pagan.

Vote on April 27th as if our children's futures depend on it, because they do!

Arleen Barcenas, 338 East 29th Street, Home phone: 201-463-3353. Email: Arleen4paterson@gmail.com

Employment: OJT Specialist, Passaic County One Stop Career Center. Length of residence in Paterson: Lifelong. Education: B.S. Administration of Justice, Rutgers University. Family: Immediate family resides in Paterson. Past and Current Involvement in the Paterson Public Schools: Product of the entire Paterson School system and proud graduate of Rosa Parks High School. Civic Involvement: Member of both local and statewide women and civic organizations, also have directed many voter outreach awareness programs both statewide and locally. Active in local municipal committees. Number of Board meeting attended in the last six months: 4 (four). Three major issues: Our Paterson curriculum needs much continued attention so our children can continue to excel and graduate at higher rates. Through collective community effort and with increased parental involvement, we must continue to bring back excellent academic standards starting from early childhood education while carrying all students into their high schools years until they successfully graduate. Our students should all equally inherit the essential tools to move up in this global competitive world, pursue their dreams through higher education and their career path of choice. Our classrooms need to reflect that these fundamental tools are being provided through updated textbooks, state of the art equipment and technology; while bringing back music and arts into our core curriculum. We're facing critical times with looming school budget cuts. However, we must be fiscally responsible for what is being allocated while at the same time not sacrificing the future and education of our children.

Family: Theresa and Laymon Cleaves (parents), Rhonda Cleaves-Thompson, Penny and Laymon Cleaves (siblings), Ivy Cleaves-Clarke (daughter), Kenadie Clarke (granddaughter), Chandelle J. (PiXi Omega Chapter-Passaic County-Past President). Number of Board meetings attended in the last 6 months: 3(three). Three major issues: 1. Student Achievement: Our children have what it takes to be great academic achievers. Preparing our students through the use of differentiated instruction and assessing their performance, can address their individual needs of learning. We need to provide afterschool programs that are accountable and can show results. 2. Creating a Safe Environment for learning and teaching: Everyone that walks into our school buildings ought to feel safe and secure. Old out-dated buildings and over crowded schools and classrooms, give off negative energy. It is difficult for anyone to teach or be taught in this type of atmosphere. 3. Community and School involvement: All members of the community need to come together in support of educating and encouraging our students. It is crucial that the parents and the community engage together in making this academic journey successful for our students.

Served as part of Superintendent Search Committee, 2008; served on multiple sub-committees of the board of education: NJQSAC Committee, Parental Involvement Committee, Legal Committee, Policy Committee, Fiscal Committee and Personnel Committee. Civic Involvements: Sociedad Pro-Desarrollo de Ranchete, DOPOR (Dominican Political Representation), NALEO (National American Latino Elected Officials), DAEOCNJ (Dominican-American Elected Officials Caucus of NJ), Silk City Women's Club, and Paterson Scholarship Fund. Number of Board meeting attended in the last six months: I have attended every workshop and regular meeting. Three major issues: (1) Increase Graduation Rates. This district is graduating less than 60% of the students that enter high school their freshman year and that is unacceptable. Our children are our future. They are talented and we need to help and guide them towards the right direction and not loose them to the streets. (2) We need to increase academic standards on Early Childhood Education. Our children graduating from 8th grade are reading 3 and 4 years BEHIND their grade level. The way to change that is to place more academic rigor on early childhood since it's the age and grade level where our children absorb most of their learning. (3) Increase Parental Involvement is a KEY factor needed in our district. Education begins at home and parents need to get more involved with what is happening in our children's schools in order to be able to assist their children with the help they need.

the Urban Blackboard TV program; Democratic County Committee (current). Number of Board meeting attended in the last six months: ALL of them. Three major issues: 1. Declining academic performance: The most important issue facing the school board as it struggles to throw off the yoke of state control, is the academic performance of Paterson's children. More rigor must be imparted to the curriculum and greater attention must be direct to making our children more effective students. 2. Restructuring of our schools: A new philosophical approach needs to be defined and implemented. Our elementary schools, especially the more challenged ones, need to institute a different educational system, one that supports academic success and challenges students early and ensures that they do not progress in grade without the requisite skills. 3. Upgrading Facilities: The district has to develop a comprehensive plan that addresses the very significant facility issues we face, irrespective of what the SDA is prepared to do. That means crafting innovative approaches that may stretch the bounds of what is currently deemed permissible.

Ramon A. Pagan, 139 East 31st Street. Home Phone: 973-523-2912. Work Phone: 973-930-6347. Email:

mpagan@verizon.net. Employment: Toufayan Bakeries, Inc. Executive Account Manager. Length of residence in Paterson: 22 years. Education: Associate Degree- Sociology- Passaic County Community College. Family: Candida Grullon (wife) Lorraine, Leslie, Nomar. Civic Involvements: Paterson Baseball League Association, Inc., Happy Children Foundation, Inc. Number of Board meetings attended in the last six months: 4. Three major issues: 1. Student's dropout has been a challenge for many years for Paterson School District, and has been even more difficult to eradicate when our District has been under State control since 1991. This practice, encourage juvenile delinquency in our city, being the majority of the crimes committed by youngsters, which ages range between 11 to 17 years old and at some point have deserted from the school system. Furthermore, if we have a city with higher crime incidence, we are obligated to have a greater public safety body, and therefore a higher budget and higher taxes to cover the spillovers of school desertion. 2. Uniform policy should be implemented in the district to keep our children safe and help Patersonian families, which income per capita is about $14,000.00 a year, to save some money on the yearly basis. 3. Local Control should be returned to Paterson School District, if we want to attain our academic goals.

Paterson Public Schools Budget: Making Do without $54 million

It's budget time for schools across the country. Schools face higher demands and reduced support. And the news in Paterson isn't any better. While our budget increased by $14 million, its buying power is less. For example, we will lose 250 staff members next year. It's not just the jobs that matter. It's what doesn't happen for our children.

The impact on our children will be considerable: larger class sizes, fewer electives and special courses, shared librarians and art and music teachers, reduced numbers of afterschool and summer programs, just to name a few.

It didn't have to be this way. If the School Funding Reform Act of 2008 were fully funded, Paterson would have an additional $54 million to provide more services to our children. These are services that our children will not receive any other way. Our parents don't have the money for afterschool enrichment classes or tutors for their children. If a service is not available at school or church, most of our children don't receive it.

The cumulative effect of this lack of opportunity is predictable. Paterson children will achieve less because they lack access to the supports they need in order to soar.

Frequently Asked Questions

How do we pay for our schools?

Our budget in 2011-2012 is planned for $523 million. Paterson's local tax portion of the school budget, $38.9 million, is only sufficient to run our academy high schools at Eastside and Kennedy. If the State of New Jersey and the federal government took their funds away, Paterson would have to close all its elementary schools, pre-schools and other high school programs.

How do we return to local control?

New Jersey Statutes Annotated (N.J.S.A.) 18A contains new education law, signed into law in December 2005 regarding the monitoring of schools. It is known as NJQSAC or the NJ Quality Single Accountability System. Part of this law sets out the way that any state operated school district may return to local control.

→ Paterson does not receive any financial benefit from being state-operated. [It did under the original law, but that was amended more than 15 years ago.] Our support from the State of New Jersey is provided by the School Funding Reform Act of 2008, see www.edlawcenter.org for details.

→ Paterson will not lose any state aid because we return to local control. Any additional local taxes will have to be approved by Paterson voters.

How do I get more information?

There is lots of information about the Paterson Public Schools on the following websites:

www.paterson.k12.nj.us contains local information.

www.state.nj.us/education contains all the rules governing our schools and our School Report Cards.

www.edlawcenter.com for information on the School Funding Reform Act of 2008.

For further information, call Irene Sterling at the Paterson Education Fund, 973-881-8914

What can the board of education do?

Under the Constitution of the State of New Jersey, the State is responsible for providing education for its citizens [the “thorough and efficient system of free, public schools” clause]. The State establishes local school boards and requires them to run the schools under its [the State’s] rules. The powers of the School Board are limited; it operates under a very comprehensive set of regulations known as NJ Administrative Code 6A. As a state-operated district, the Paterson School board is advisory and has no power over personnel. It’s actions can be vetoed by the State Superintendent.

➔The School Board’s most important role is to hold the school system accountable for educating Paterson children.

What does the oath of office mean?

Every member of the Board of Education takes the following oath of office:

“I do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of New Jersey, and that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same and to the governments established in the United States and in this state, under the authority of the people, so help me God.

I do further solemnly swear that I will impartially and justly perform all the duties of the office of according to the best of my ability. So help me God.”

While school board members are elected by local citizens, they are responsible to the State of New Jersey. Under the New Jersey Constitution, they are responsible for providing a “thorough and efficient” education. Our State Supreme Court has interpreted that to mean an education that makes them competitive in the market place and able to be good citizens.
